AV THOUGHT AND.

Tuxe-Oh, Boulah Land, so bright fair!

1 Through grouns and tears, defeate grief, I count to Thee, Lord, for relief; My hungry soul from heaven fill, Bay to my throbbing heart, "Be still."

CHORUS.

Now, take my beart, and seal it Thins I want to do Thy will, not mine; In light or dark I'll follow Thos, For now I know Thou leadest mo.

Oh, take my lips and make them five, To etter holy truths from Thee! And keep my mouth from speaking guile, That would e spotless soul delle.

I sant to love and live for Him, Who did my soul from hell redeem; And every thought and action bring Into subjection to my King.

Oh, now I feel it in my soul, The precious blood does make me whole; It down, a river from above, By faith I claim Thy perfect love.
